

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving,

You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,

A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,

In death I love you still.

In my heart you hold a place,

That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,

But you didn't go alone.

For part of me went with you,

The day God took you home.

THE LIFE OF

Bodhisotpha Bodhi" Dakutak

Bodhisotpha "Bodhi" was born on December 19, 2004 in Anchorage, Alaska to Tabitha Corneille and Joshua Dakutak. Bodhi enjoyed playing in the outdoors there, especially with his older sister, Tacona. He was born with a smile that could light up a room. Three years later, Bodhi's little brother, and best friend, Deegan was born. He and his family moved to Louisiana for a few years to be near extended family. In 2015, they moved to Watford City, ND. His friends and family all say, "Bodhi was a protector!" He would make sure to have you laugh on a good day and brighten a tough day with a joke, silly antic, or with a dance. Bodhi stood up for the people he cared about.

Bodhi enjoyed longboarding. He liked seeing the result of a day's work, from helping his dad at a young age work on a vehicle or his recent new construction job. He was proud of what he did at the end of the workday. Bodhi learned how to be kind and loving like his mom and his Gammy. He was spirited and kind. As much as we all loved his smile and laugh, he wanted to make everyone else smile and laugh too!

Bodhisotpha "Bodhi" passed away on Saturday, September 17, 2022, of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Surviving him are his mother, Tabitha Corneille; father, Joshua Dakutak; brothers, Deegan Skaggs, Wylan Stenhoff and Trustin Stenhoff; sisters, Tacona Dakutak and Legacy Stenhoff; grandmothers, Donna "Gammy" Felarise and Duree French; maternal grandfather, Ted Wetherald; uncle, Rivet Dakutak; aunt and uncle Star and Izy Naquin; great grandparents; and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his maternal great grandfather, Stephen J. Felarise.
