Jameson Jeffrey Egemo was born July 24th, 1999 to Michelle Holm Egemo and Jeffrey Owen Egemo in Williston, North Dakota.

Jameson was raised by his mother, Michelle Holm Horob and his bonus dad, Jay Horob on the family farm northeast of Bainville, Montana.

Jameson has 2 brothers, Joseph Horob and Angelo Lee Schrupf. He has 5 sisters, Michaela Hartman, Jessica Horob, Christina Holm, Stephanie Egemo and Jaymie Horob.

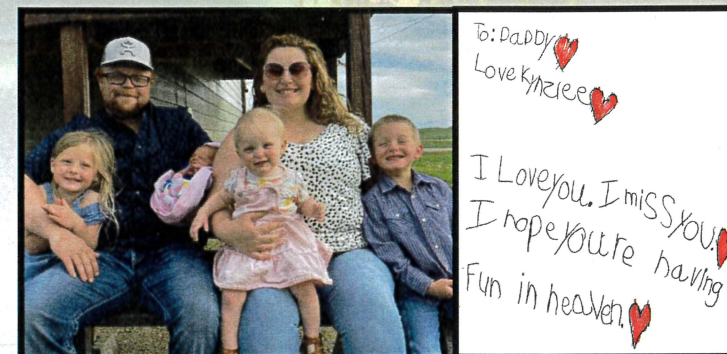

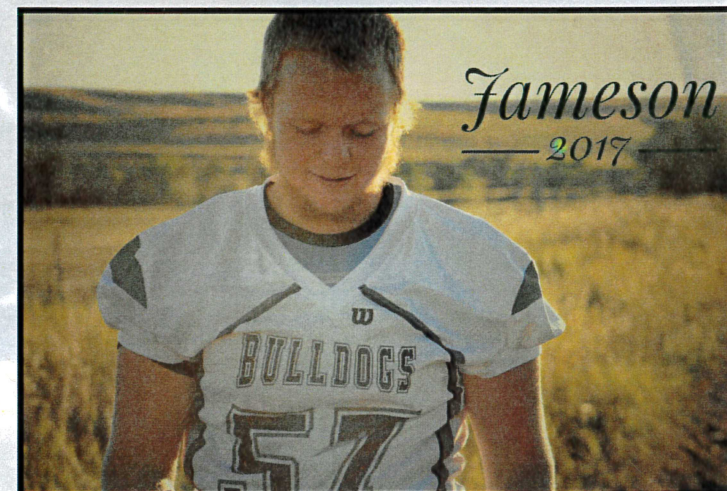

Jameson attended Bainville School where he enjoyed playing basketball and football. The school co-opt with Culbertson until Jameson's senior year when the boys started the football program for Bainville School. He was also a member of FFA. Jameson participated in the Missoula Childrens Theatre. He graduated in 2017 from Bainville School.

He enjoyed hanging out with his friend's, playing basketball, football, hunting, boating, fishing and camping. He was always willing to help when needed. Jameson enjoyed helping the neighbors' work cattle or anything else they needed. Growing up he enjoyed visiting with his aunts, uncles and cousins. He was always willing to help Grandma Musette Horob with yard work and gardening. Jameson was always ready and willing to lend a hand. His greatest past time was hanging out with his best friend Brennen; coyote hunting and fishing. Those boys were inseparable. Mama Lisa Brunelle was always there for Jameson for the good, the bad, and the ugly times.

Jameson worked as a roustabout for Kevin South and Shawn Bilquist right out of school, they taught him so much. He also sold fireworks for Torches fireworks and helped Scott Sorenson set up and tear down for the last few years. Scott was always ready with positive feedback when Jameson was going through a rough patch. He also worked for Olson construction in Williston, ND and Bowman, ND.
